

Mrs. Beagley will be the new 7th grade homeroom teacher at St. Peter's School. She will be teaching religion and social studies to our middle school students. She comes to us from the Prince Georges County Public School system where she was chair of the Social Studies Department. We are happy to have her join our Storm team!