

Cree que puede, y ya está a mitad de camino

*(Believe that you can,
and you're already halfway there)*

~ El otoño ~ FALL 2016

This fall, I'm excited to get our middle-school students speaking more proficiently by reading Spanish dialogues aloud and writing/performing skits in class to practice conversations entirely en Español. Our Spanish clubs are already enjoying Spanish translations of well-known fairy tales (like Cenicienta, or Cinderella) and learning a lot of new vocabulario while we're at it. We also say the Padre Nuestro prayer at the beginning of every class. Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth graders will be graded on their ability to recite it at the end of the semester.

So far, our younger grades have been having a blast singing canciones to review topics like los números and los colores. If you ask any of the Kindergarten, First, or Second graders, I'm sure they would also love to perform our "Hola a todos, buenos días" song for you! This fall we will learn more songs and games to practice our vocabulary and pronunciations, including ¿Quién robó pan en la casa de San Juan?

Gracias for visiting my sitio web, and por favor feel free to send me a mensaje at schoolspanish@stpeterswaldorf.org if you have any suggestions or questions!

Sinceramente,
Profesora Rison

